Biker Wisdom, Words to Ride & Live By!

- * If you wait, all that happens is that you get older.
 - * When you're riding lead, don't spit.
 - * If you don't ride in the rain, you don't ride!
 - * A bike on the road is worth two in the shed.
 - * Respect the person who has seen the dark side of motorcycling and lived.
 - * Saddlebags can never hold everything you want, but they can hold everything you need.
 - * Sometimes it takes a whole tank full of fuel before you can think straight.
 - * It takes more love to share the saddle than it does to share the bed.
 - * Only a Biker knows why a dog sticks his head out of a car window.
 - * You can forget what you do for a living when your knees are in the breeze.
 - * Four wheels move the body. Two wheels move the soul.....
 - * Work to ride & ride to work.
 - * Midnight bugs taste best.
 - * You start the game of life with a full pot o' luck and an empty pot o' experience... The object is to fill the pot of experience before you empty the pot of luck.
 - * Life may begin at 30, but it doesn't get real interesting until about 160kph!
 - * Never try to race an old geezer; he may have one more gear than you.
 - * Never do less than fifty miles before breakfast.
 - * The only good view of a thunderstorm is in your rear view mirror.
 - * Don't ride so late into the night that you sleep through the sunrise.

- * Riding faster than everyone else only guarantees you'll ride alone.
- * Never hesitate to ride past the last street light at the edge of town.
- * There are drunk riders. There are old riders. There are NO old, drunk riders.
- * Young riders pick a destination and go... Old riders pick a direction and go.
- * A good mechanic will let you watch without charging you for it.
- * Always back your bike into the curb, and sit where you can see it.
- * Most motorcycle problems are caused by the nut that connects the handlebars to the saddle.
- * Whatever it is, it's better in the wind.
- * Two-lane blacktop isn't a highway - it's an attitude.
- * When you look down the road, it seems to never end - but you better believe it does.
- * Winter is Nature's way of telling you to polish.
- * Keep your bike in good repair: Motorcycle boots are not comfortable for walking.
- * People are like Motorcycles: each is customized a bit differently.
- * Sometimes, the best communication happens when you're on separate bikes.
- * Don't argue with an 18-wheeler.
- * The best alarm clock is sunshine on chrome.
- * Practice wrenching on your own bike.
- * There's something ugly about a NEW bike on a trailer.
- * The twisties - not the super slabs -separate the riders from the squids.

- * Everyone crashes. Some get back on. Some don't. Some can't.
- * Good coffee should be indistinguishable from 50 weight motor oil.
- * Never be ashamed to unlearn an old habit.
- * A good long ride can clear your mind and restore your faith.
- * If you can't get it going with bungee cords and electrician's tape, it's serious.
- * If you ride like there's no tomorrow, there won't be.
- * Bikes parked outside the front of a restaurant mean good food inside.
- * Gray-haired riders don't get that way from pure luck.
- * Thin leather looks good in the bar, but it won't save your butt from "road rash" if you go down.
- * The best modifications cannot be seen from the outside.
- * Always replace the cheapest parts first.
- * Patience is the ability to keep your motor idling.
- * It is good to have an end to journey towards; but it is the journey that matters in the end.
- * Ride as if your life depended on it.
- * Never ride faster than your guardian angel can fly.
